Called “the funniest farce ever written”

Noises Off is a hilarious, high-energy, three-act play-within-a-play by Michael Frayn.

It follows a ramshackle theatre troupe as it rehearses and performs the sex farce ‘Nothing On’.

Faced with erratic doors, errant sardines, and a questionable plot, the hopelessly underprepared actors bravely stumble through the dress rehearsal.

But soon on-stage and off-stage drama descends into chaos ...

Production dates: 25th—28th November 2026
